

PPD Quality Assurance Technician Job Description – 8/2/2021

Perkins Precision Developments (PPD) is a small, growing business with a positive, family atmosphere, conveniently located east of Longmont, near I25 and Hwy 66. The company culture is team oriented, where every individual is valued and contributes to the success of the whole group.

Job Snapshot

Employment Type	Full-Time
Education	High school diploma
Experience	At least 2 years optics cleaning and/or inspection

Essential Job Functions include the following, but are not limited to:

- Clean, inspect and test products to MIL and/or ISO specification
 - Understand written work instructions and schematics
 - Cleaning, handling and assembly of coated and uncoated optical components, laser crystals and opto-electronic components
 - Perform visual inspection and testing with interferometer and autocollimators
 - Proper handling and packaging of critical and fragile optical components
- Cleaning, loading, unloading and inspecting optics before and after coating
- Keep appropriate records and log books
- Keep work area neat and organized

Qualifications

- Must be detail conscious and work with accuracy
- Successfully work independently with general direction
- Communicate well in a team environment
- Comfortable with contacting customers, Sales and Customer support.
- Attributes for leadership are encouraged
- Minimum 2 years of experience in a similar position preferred

Perkins Precision Developments must comply with the International Traffic in Arms Regulations (ITAR) issued by the US Dept of State, Directorate of Defense Controls. Because of ITAR, PPD limits employment to US citizens or lawful permanent residents of the United States.

PPD is an Equal Opportunity Employer.